

Invitation to Horsham Seminar Series

UB Collaborative Research Network

What opportunities does this present for research in the region?

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend the Horsham Seminar Series to hear about the University of Ballarat Collaborative Research Network (CRN) and the research being conducted in the Region through the CRN including Dr Keely Mills work on understanding changes in climate (specifically rainfall) and the environment over the past 10,000 years (a geological time period known as the Holocene) and, more recently, the impacts of European settlement on Australian wetlands and rivers.

The speakers will be:

Dr Jonathan Wearne

Director of the Collaborative Research Network

Dr Keely Mills
